INTRODUCTION TO FIQH

Allah Ta’ala has commanded us to worship and obey Him. He sent Nabee Muhammad Sallallahu Alaihi Wa Sallam to teach us how to obey and worship Him. We cannot worship Allah Ta’ala according to our own understanding. Our worship has to be in accordance to the laws of Allah Ta’ala. The rules and regulations which outline the method of worship and obedience are termed as “Fiqh”. The manner of purifying ourselves, the manner of performing Salaah, Fasting, Haj, Zakah, Nikah, etc. is explained to us through the subject of Fiqh. We acquire a clear understanding of the Deen through the study of Fiqh. Nabee Muhammad Sallallahu Alaihi Wa Sallam said:

"Whenever Allah be the desire good for a person, he grants him deep understanding of the Deen. I only distribute the knowledge whilst Allah be bestows it to me."

The great and famous Imaams have extracted the rules and regulations of Fiqh from the Qur’aan and Ahadeeth. Imaam Aboo Hanefah, Imaam Shaafi’ee, Imaam Maalik and Imaam Ahmad bin Hambal (May Allah’s mercy be upon them) are some of the great Imaams. After a deep study of the Sharee’ah, they have compiled books on Fiqh, making it easy for us to follow the Deen.

After a deep study of the Sharee’ah, they have compiled books on Fiqh, making it easy for us to follow the Deen.
Our deen is based on the law of Allaah تَعَالَى. The law of Allaah تَعَالَى is understood from the Holy Qur'aan and from the teachings of Nabee Muhammad صلی الله علیه و سلم. The teachings of Nabee صلی الله علیه و سلم are known as the Sunnah. Certain laws are compulsory, while other acts may not be compulsory. The Ulama have placed the laws of our deen into different categories, to help us understand and practice our deen. The following Arabic terms will help us understand which acts are compulsory, forbidden or disliked by Allah تَعَالَى.

1. Fardh or Waajib - A compulsory act.
2. Sunnah - An act which Nabee Muhammad صلی الله علیه و سلم approved and encouraged.
3. Mandoob or Mustahab - A recommended act. It is something good to do.
4. Nafl - An optional act for which there is great reward.
5. Haraam - A forbidden (not allowed) act.
7. Halaal - A permissible (allowed) act.

Questions

One - Answer True or False:

Compulsory acts of wudhu

There are six acts, which are compulsory (fardh) in wudhu. If any one of these six is left out or left unfinished, wudhu will be incomplete. Allah does not accept salaat with incomplete wudhu.

The fardh acts of wudhu:

1. To make niyyah (intention) before making wudhu.
2. To wash the full face once from the hairline of the forehead to just below the chin and from one earlobe to the other.
3. To wash both arms including the elbows once.
4. To make masah (wiping) of at least three hairs on the head.
5. To wash both feet including the ankles once.

The sunnah acts of wudhu

Certain acts in wudhu are sunnah. If the sunnah acts are left out, wudhu will be complete although the full reward will be lost. Nabee Muhammad ﷺ has said: “He who makes wudhu and he does it perfectly; his sins fall off his body; even from under his finger nails” (Bukhaaree & Muslim)

The sunnah acts in wudhu:
1. To recite tasmiyyah - Bismillaah.
2. To wash both hands including the wrist.
3. To brush the teeth with a miswaak (tooth stick)
4. To rinse the mouth after using miswaak.
5. Gargling to clean the throat (not when fasting).
6. To pass water into the nostrils three times.
7. To make khilaal of the beard - pass wet fingers through the beard
8. To make khilaal of the fingers and toes.
9. To make masah of the whole head, not only 3 hairs.
10. To make masah of the ears.
11. To do each wash and wipe three times.
12. To wash the right part before the left and to wash a little more than required.

Ghusl is a special method of washing the entire body to become clean from the greater impurity. Ghusl is only complete if every part of our body is wet. A clean body is loved by Allaah تَطَالَى and protects us from germs and sickness. Water is a gift from Allaah تَطَالَى; we must not waste it when making ghusl.

The following two acts are fardh in ghusl:

1. To make Niyyah (intention).
2. To pour water at least once over the entire body from head to toe without leaving a single hair dry.

Ghusl is a special method of washing the entire body to become clean from the greater impurity. Ghusl is only complete if every part of our body is wet. A clean body is loved by Allāh ﷻ and protects us from germs and sickness. Water is a gift from Allāh ﷻ; we must not waste it when making ghusl.

The following two acts are fardh in ghusl:

1. To make Niyyah (intention).
2. To pour water at least once over the entire body from head to toe without leaving a single hair dry.

Athaaan is a call to salaah. Athaaan reminds the Muslims of the greatness of Allaah and His Prophet. It invites people to salaah and calls them to success. The person who calls out the athaan will be among the most honoured persons on the Day of Judgement. (Muslim)

1. It is sunnah to give athaan for the five daily salaah.
2. The person who calls the athaan is called the muaththin.
3. The muaththin must face the qiblah when giving athaan.
4. It is sunnah to give athaan with wudhu.
5. Athaan must be given only after the salaah time enters.
6. Athaan must be given in a loud voice.
7. Iqaamah is given before beginning the fardh salaah.
8. A person who gives iqaamah is called a Mukabbir.
9. Iqaamah is given in a much lower voice than the athaan.

The method of giving Athaan is as follows:

The muaththin will face the qiblah and insert his forefingers into his ears.

He will say as follows:

• Allaah is the greatest - four times
  الله أكبر
• I bear witness that there is no one worthy of worship besides Allaah - two times
  أشهد أن لا إله إلا الله
• I bear witness that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allaah - two times
  أشهد أن محمدا رسول الله
• Come to salaah - two times
  حَيَّ عَلَيْ الصَّلَاةَ
• Come to success - two times
  حَيَّ عَلَى الفَلَاح
