Aadaab (Etiquettes) of Wudhu

Wudhu is also an act of Ibaadah. All kinds of Ibaadah have etiquettes that need to be practiced so that it can be accepted by Allaah . If these etiquettes are left out, then the rewards could also be lost.

These are some Aadaab of wudhu:

1. To face Qiblah.
2. To sit on a high clean place.
3. Not to talk during wudhu, except when necessary.
4. When washing begin at the top of the face without slapping the face.
Two b

Mustahab/Mandoob acts of wudhu

Certain acts are encouraged when making wudhu. These acts perfect the wudhu and increase the reward. If these acts are left out, wudhu will still be correct but we carry out these actions because they show our love for Allah ﷻ and His deen.

They are:

1. To use sufficient amount of water - not too much, not too little.
2. Leave the limbs wet after wudhu by not drying them yourself.
3. To make wudhu without taking unnecessary help from anyone.
4. Not to wipe the neck.

Ghusl

To take a bath is a natural need for Muslims as well as non-Muslims. Taking a bath is good for the body and mind but only Muslims gain reward because they do it according to the teachings of the deen.

Definition of Ghusl
In Islam, ghusl means to wash the entire body by pouring water over our body intentionally, as done by our Nabee Muhammad صل الله عليه وسلم.

Virtues of ghusl
Allaah loves those who are clean. Without ghusl, our Ibaadah is not accepted. Ghusl washes away sins and prevents body odours.

Important points of ghusl
Faraaidh of Ghusl

There are two faraaidh in ghusl:

1. To make an intention for removing najaasat (impurity).
2. Pouring water over the entire body. It is important to take special care that:
   a. Water reaches the roots of the hair.
   b. Water reaches the inside of the navel.
   c. Water reaches the inner part of the nose (to the bone).
   d. Water reaches the inner part of the ear and earring holes.

There are nine sunan in ghusl:

1. To recite Bismillah before undressing and face Qiblah during ghusl.

Allaah تَعَالَى has made our deen a very easy one. When there is difficulty in carrying out His commands, then the command is adjusted to make it easier for us; like Tayammum.

Nabee Muhammad ﷺ has said that: “Three things have been given to us in preference over the rest of mankind: Our sufoof (rows in Salaah) are made like the rows of the Malaa-ikah (Angels), the entire earth has been made a place of Salaah (prayer) for us and its sand has been made as a means of purity for us when we do not find water.” (Al-Hadith; Muslim)

Definition of tayammum: Tayammum is a special way of making wudhu or ghusl with sand when there is no water available or when water cannot be used because of some medical reasons.

The six faraaidh of tayammum

1. Niyyah.
2. To strike the soil with the palms of the hands.
3. To pass the hands with some soil over the whole face.
4. To strike the soil for the second time.
5. To pass the hands over the arms including the elbows.
6. To do all the above in the order mentioned.

Note: The portion between the fingers should also be rubbed.
Method of Tayammum

1. Say "Bismillah" and strike both hands (palms, with fingers spread) on clean sand.
2. At this point make niyyah, stating the reason for which tayammum is made.
3. Thereafter pass and rub hands well over the face.
4. Again strike both hands on the sand and rub them well onto the arms including the elbows.
5. No portion of the hands or face may be left out (untouched). Remove all rings, bangles and watches etc. before the tayammum. Make khilaal of the fingers.

Note:
The method of performing tayammum for wudhu and ghusl is the same except that the intention is different.
Activity

Cross word - Fill in the missing words in the blocks below.

1. Allah تَعَالَى has made our Deen a very ____ ____ one.
2. The entire earth has been made a place of ____ ____ for us.
3. To pass the ____ ____ with some soil over the face.
4. Dust the palms and wipe the ___ ____ including the ____ ____.
5. ____ ____ hands are used to touch the soil.
Conditions to make Tayammum valid

Our deen of Islam takes into consideration the different conditions we face. When the condition becomes tough, then the command of Allaah تَعَالَی َٰلَی تَعَالِی also changes to make things easier for us. Tayammum is one such command of Allaah تَعَالَی َٰلَی تَعَالِی that makes life easier for us. Only when any of the following three conditions appear, tayammum will be valid to perform.

1. Absence of water - If water is not to be found after a search has been made within a radius of 3km.
2. Illness - When the use of water will cause illness or further harm.
3. Fear of thirst - When (in places like farms etc) there is only sufficient drinking water for animals or people.

Important Rules for Tayammum

1. If water is not available in a radius of 3 kilometers or if a person is unable to use water, only then can tayammum be made.
2. Tayammum for wudhu and ghusl are the same, only the niyyah (intention) is different.
3. All things that break wudhu also break tayammum.
4. It should be done within the time limits.
5. Tayammum must be done with pure sand that has dust and not any sand mixed with something else, like lime, flour etc.

Times of salaah

The most important act of ibadah is salaah. Salaah has to be read five times a day at certain times as taught to us by Nabee Muhammad صلّى الله عليه وسلم. Just as we do not perform Hajj outside the appointed time, we cannot read salaah outside its appointed time. It is a great sin to read salaah after the time has expired.

The times of salaah are:

1. Fajr The early morning salaah. It is performed before sunrise.

2. Zuhur The midday salaah. It is performed after the sun has passed the zenith (istiwaa/zawaal).

3. Asr The late afternoon salaah. It is performed before the sun changes colour in the late afternoon.

4. Maghrib The evening salaah. It is performed immediately after the sun has set.

5. Isha The night salaah. It is performed after the redness in the sky has disappeared.

Forbidden times of salaah

Salaah is the actual time for a person to communicate with Allaah. After all the physical preparation for Salaah, it is now important to know everything about Salaah to get it accepted by Allaah. Care should be taken that the salah is done at the right times because there are also prohibited times for making salah.

There are five occasions during the day when Salaah cannot be made when there is no reason to:

1. From after performing the Fajr Salaah until actual sunrise.
2. During the sunrise until it has risen to the height of one spear-length (ie. up to 20 minutes after actual sunrise).
3. When the sun is at zenith (Istiwaal-Zawaal) ie. this period is approximately 15 minutes, depending on different places and seasons.
4. From after performing the Asr Salaah till when the sun has set.
5. During the actual sunset and sunrise moments.

The Conditions of Salaah

Eight conditions need to be fulfilled before performing salaah. They are as follows.

1. To be a sane and baligh (mature) Muslim.
2. It should be the proper time for salaah.
3. A person must be in taahir (pure) state.
4. The place, clothes and body should be taahir.
5. The awrah/satar (private parts) should be covered.
6. Facing the Qiblah.
7. To know about the faraaidh (compulsory) acts of salaah.
8. Not to do things that will break the salaah.
Certain acts are compulsory in salah. If any one of these acts is left out salah will not be complete. Sometimes we lift our hands when beginning salah but forget to say the “Takbeer-Tahreemah” which is a fardh of salah. This will make our salah incorrect.

There are seventeen faraaidh of salah and to leave anyone of them, cancels the salah. They are:

1. Niyah: to make an intention for that particular salah.
2. Takbeer Tahrimah: to say “Allah-u-Akbar” to begin the salah.
3. Qiyaam: to stand upright before ruku.
4. Qiraat: the recitation of Suratul Fatiha.
5. Ruku: to bow down.
6. Itmimaan: to pause in ruku.
8. Itmimaan: to pause during I’tidaal.
9. Sajdah: to prostrate, there are two sajdahs in each rakaat.
10. Itmimaan: to pause in each sajdah.
11. Jalsah: to sit between the two sajdahs.
12. Itmimaan: to pause during the jalsah.
13. Qa’dah Akheerah: the final sitting before the salaam of salah.
14. Tashahhud: recital of this dua during Qa’dah Akheerah.
15. Salat alan Nabee Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم: to send greetings/durood upon Nabee Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم
16. Salaam: the first of the two is fardh.
17. Tarteeb: all the faraaidh should be done in sequence.

How to read salaah

Practical Lesson

The method of performing salaah is as follows:

♦ Be dressed in taahir clothes and after performing wudhu, stand on a taahir place facing the Qiblah.
♦ Make the niyyah.
♦ Raise both hands in line to the shoulders, with palms facing the Qiblah and then say “Allaahu Akbar”. (Takbeer Tahrirah).
♦ Now fold both hands just above the navel below the chest, i.e. the right hand must grab hold of the left hand wrist while being placed between the navel and chest. The females will have their hands placed flatly, right palm over the left hand, on the top part of the chest.
♦ While standing in salaah do not look around. Stand with respect, and keep your mind (concentration) towards the greatness of Allaah تعلیم.
♦ Thereafter recite the Istiftaah.
♦ Followed by the Ta-awwudh.
♦ Thereafter recite the Tasmiyyah as part of Surah Fatiha (Alhamdu Sharief). After completing Suratul Fatiha say “Ameen” softly when performing salaah alone and slightly aloud when in Jamaah (congregation).
♦ Females will always say it softly.
♦ Then recite any Surah you know.
Thereafter raise the hands to the shoulder line, as was done in the beginning and while saying “Allaahu Akbar” go into ruku. In ruku hold the knees with your hands spreading the fingers around the knees and recite the tasbeeh of ruku three times.

During the ruku, the males will stretch their backs while the females will keep it humped, just managing to hold their knees.

Say the tasmeé while rising from ruku.

When rising, raise the hands again to the shoulder line and leave them to the sides when standing upright.

Then go into sajdah while saying “Allaahu Akbar”.

When going into sajdah, first place the knees, then both the hands, then the nose and lastly the forehead between both the hands on the ground.

During Sajdah, the males will keep the stomach apart from the thighs, and arms from the sides, but the females will keep them together. The fingers are kept together, facing Qiblah and placed under the shoulders.

In Sajdah recite the tasbeeh thrice.

Thereafter say the Takbeer and sit upright. The males must sit on the left foot with the right foot straight up keeping the toes facing Qiblah. The females will sit flat on the ground with their left foot slipped underneath the right foot while it is upright.

Now repeat the takbeer and go back for a second sajdah in the same manner as in the first sajdah.
- After completing the sajdah say takbeer to stand. Before going all the way up, first sit for a moment, and then rise by taking support with the hands by placing them on the ground.
- On finishing the second sajdah one rakaat has been completed.
- Now the second rakaat will begin as in the first.
- Recite the tasmiyyah with Alhamdu Sharief and a Surah, but this time the Istiftah will not be recited.
- Perform the Ruku, I'tidaal and both sajdahs.
- After the second sajdah do not stand up but remain in a sitting position and recite the Tashahhud, Salat-alan-Nabee Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم (Durood Ebraheem), and then the duaa after Salat-alan-Nabee Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.
- This time when sitting, the males and females will sit with the buttocks flat on the ground, the right foot will be kept upright and the left foot will be slipped underneath it.
- Lastly make the Salaam.
- When making the Salaam, first turn the head towards the right then towards the left.
- After the Salaam recite the Duaa after Salaah.
- The method of Duaa is to raise the hands to the height of the chest with palms held upwards.
- After the completion of Duaa pass the hands over the face while saying “Aameen”.
Special Note:
The raising of the hands before Ruku, after Ruku and at the beginning of the 3rd Rakaat is called Raf'ul-yadain (raising of the hands).
